PINYADA SENGATE

HELLO I AM BACKEND DEVELOPER

With extensive experience in the field of game development and yes, I have a residence card (NIE) from Spain that make me available to live and work without any issue. I glad to offer to you my knowledge and the ability to adapt to new technologies and methodologies to deliver successful projects. I have also years working with international teams who have made my communication skills good enough to understand complex ideas and collaborate with colleagues from different backgrounds. I am very excited to start working in Europe to show my full potential.
